Step by Step
Process for
Resolving a Case
Related Complaint

What is a Case Related Formal Complaint?

A case related complaint is any concern that you feel cannot be resolved by the social worker, supervisor, and/or manager.

You have the right to make a complaint about any concern you have on a child's case with Children's Services Division.

Anyone can make a complaint, including current or former clients and members of the public.

Examples of case related complaints are concerns involving:

- Calls not being returned
- Customer service
- Staff behavior
- Visitation
- Family visit denied based on your criminal history

How Do I Resolve a Complaint?

Please allow one (1) business day for your call to be returned.

Step 1: Contact the assigned social worker to:

- Discuss your concerns.
- Ask what can be done to resolve your concern.

Step 2: Contact the supervisor when:

- You are not satisfied with the social worker's resolution.
- The social worker has not returned your call.

Discuss your concerns with the supervisor and ask what can be done to resolve your concern.

Let the supervisor know the following:

- Date you contacted the social worker.
- What the social worker said to you about the concern.

Step 3: Contact the Manager when:

- You are not satisfied with the supervisor's resolution.
- The supervisor has not returned your call.

Ask the manager to assist you with your concern. The manager will assess your concern by:

- Reviewing the child's case.
- Discussing your concern with the assigned social worker and supervisor.

I'm not satisfied with the decision about my concern. What do I do now?

You may file a formal complaint with the Customer Service/Complaints Coordinator.

You may contact the Customer Service/Complaints Coordinator when:

- The case is closed.
- Your concern warrants bypassing the social worker and/or supervisor.

A representative from Children's Services Division will contact you concerning your complaint within three (3) working days.
